v.

CRIMINAL NO. 3:04-00107-01

WILLIAM FREDERICK REYNOLDS

MEMORANDUM OF SENTENCING HEARING AND REPORT OF STATEMENT OF REASONS

On May 20, 2005, the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Carol Ann Bauer, and the United States appeared by Kenneth M. Smith, Assistant United States Attorney. Carolyn F. Morse was present on behalf of the United States Probation Office.

The court confirmed that counsel and the defendant have received and reviewed the presentence investigation report and the accompanying addendum [hereinafter referred to as "PSI"]. The court then heard argument with regard to defendant's objection to the statement in the PSI that his maximum parole expiration date is July 31, 2008. Defendant contends that his parole expired in 2002. This objection the court OVERRULED, after observing that the defendant presents no evidence to support his belief with regard to the expiration of his term of parole, and that the issue does not affect the court's calculation of the applicable Guideline range, in any event.

After confirming that there were no remaining objections to the report from either party, the court accepted the PSI and ORDERED it filed under seal except for the recommendations section prepared by the United States Probation Officer, which was ORDERED withheld. The court directed that, in the event of an appeal of the sentence herein, the PSI, except for the recommendations section, will be made available to counsel on appeal.

In order to fulfill its obligations under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(c)(3)(D), the court directed that a copy of this written Memorandum of Sentencing Hearing and Report of Statement of Reasons be appended to and accompany any copy of the PSI hereafter made available to the Federal Bureau of Prisons. No information was withheld from the report pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(c)(3)(A).

Having received and reviewed the PSI, the court adopted as its findings of fact and conclusions of law the statements contained in the PSI, except as modified by further ruling of the court and detailed herein.

The court then found the applicable Guideline levels and ranges before departure to be as follows:

1. The Base Offense Level is 20.
2. The Total Offense Level is 29, the court having applied the career offender offense level of 32 provided for under

U.S.S.G. § 4B1.1, and having granted a two-level downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility pursuant to § 3E1.1, because the defendant appears to have admitted all elements of the offense and accepted responsibility for his actions; and having granted a further one-level decrease pursuant to § 3E1.1(b), upon motion of the Government, because the defendant timely notified authorities of his intention to enter a plea of guilty.

3. The Criminal History Category is VI.
4. The total Guideline range is thus:
 - a. Imprisonment for a term of 262 months to 327 months.
 - b. Supervised release for a period of two to three years with regard to Count One, and three to five years with regard to Count Three, the terms to run concurrently.
 - c. A total fine of $15,000.00 to $150,000.00.
 - d. A mandatory special assessment of $200.00 under 18 U.S.C. § 3013.

Upon the government's motion pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5K1.1, the court chose to depart from the applicable Guideline range because of the substantial assistance rendered by the defendant to the government. After hearing the Assistant United States Attorney's account of the defendant's assistance to the government, which the government credited with the successful prosecution of defendant Reynolds' co-defendant, the court determined that the defendant's assistance had, indeed, been substantial, and that it warranted departure from the Guideline range otherwise applicable. In considering its departure, the court reviewed each level of the sentencing table below the applicable offense level of 29, beginning at level 1 and moving upward to level 29, and concluded that an offense level of 27 would best fulfill the statutory objectives of sentencing in this case, as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Accordingly, the court found the applicable Guideline range after departure to be as follows:

1. The Total Offense Level after departure pursuant to § 5K1.1 is 27.
2. The Criminal History Category is VI.
3. The total Guideline range is thus:
 - a. Imprisonment for a term of 130 months to 162 months.
 - b. Supervised release for a period of two to three years with regard to Count One, and three to five years with regard to Count Three, the terms to run concurrently.
 - c. A total fine of $12,500.00, to $125,000.00.
 - d. A mandatory special assessment of $200.00 under 18 U.S.C. § 3013.

After counsel for the defendant, the defendant, and the Assistant United States Attorney were given an opportunity to speak, and after hearing from several friends and family members of the defendant, the court stated the following sentence:

1. The defendant shall be committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 144 months, representing 84 months with regard to Count One and 60 months with regard to Count Three, the terms of imprisonment to be served consecutively. While incarcerated, it is recommended that the defendant be evaluated by the Bureau of Prisons for enrollment in an appropriate substance abuse treatment program. It is further recommended that the defendant be incarcerated at the nearest suitable facility to Charlotte, North Carolina.
2. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a total term of three years, representing three years as to each of the two counts of conviction, the terms to run concurrently. While on supervised release, defendant shall be subject to the standard conditions of supervised release imposed by this district. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall not illegally possess a controlled substance, and shall not possess a firearm or destructive device. Throughout the period of supervision, the Probation Officer shall consider the defendant's economic circumstances as they pertain to the defendant's ability to pay any monetary penalty ordered, and shall notify the court of any material changes, with modifications recommended, as appropriate.

3. The court FINDS that the $200.00 special assessment is due and payable immediately, and ORDERS that it be paid through participation in the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program in installments of not less than twenty-five dollars per quarter. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall pay any remaining balance in monthly installments of no less than $50.00, with payments to commence within 60 days after release from imprisonment, until paid in full.
4. Having reviewed the Pretrial Services Report, as well as the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3572(a), the court finds that the defendant is unable financially to pay a fine in any amount. Accordingly, the court imposes no fine.
5. The court orders the defendant to make restitution as directed to Branch Banking and Trust in the amount of $13,109.50. The amount of restitution will be reduced once recovered monies are returned to the bank by law enforcement authorities. The defendant is jointly and severally liable with his co-defendant for the total amount of restitution. Following satisfaction in full of the mandatory special assessment, the defendant shall make quarterly payments during incarceration and subsequent monthly payments during supervised release, as set forth above, until the restitution obligation is fully satisfied.

The United States then moved for destruction of the weapon employed by the defendants in this matter, which motion the court GRANTED.

The court informed the defendant of his right to appeal the sentence imposed and the requirement that in order to initiate such an appeal, a Notice of Appeal must be filed in this court within 10 days. The defendant was advised that if he wished to appeal the sentence and could not afford to hire counsel to represent him on appeal, the court would appoint counsel for him. The defendant was further advised that if he so requested, the Clerk of the Court would prepare and file a notice of appeal on his behalf.

At the conclusion of the sentencing, the defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to SEAL the attached Statement of Reasons as well as this Memorandum of Sentencing Hearing and Report of Statement of Reasons, and forward a sealed copy of each of these documents to counsel of record and to the Probation Office of this court for forwarding to the Sentencing Commission and Bureau of Prisons. The Probation Office is further directed to make the sealed Statement of Reasons and Memorandum of Sentencing Hearing and Report of Statement of Reasons, attachments to, and part of, any copy of the PSI made available to the Bureau of Prisons and the Court of Appeals.

It is SO ORDERED this 13th day of June, 2005.
